

CARAVANA POR LA PAZ

JOIN victims of the US-supported war on drugs in Mexico for a Washington DC Procession for PEACE with Dignity & Justice

Over 60,000 people have died in Mexico's misguided "war on drugs", supported by the US. This summer, Mexican victims, their families & allies have journeyed across the country in a peace caravan, led by Mexican poet Javier Sicilia. On Sept. 12, join a Washington DC Peace Procession & amplify their call for action from governments on both sides of the border. @CaravanaUSA #MXRights @caravan4peaceDC

~ Wednesday, Sept 12th ~

5:30 pm Opening

@ St. Stephen's Church
1525 Newton St. NW
(metro Columbia Heights)

6:30 Procession begins

(heading south on 16th)

7:30 Music, Caravan Closing

@ Meridian Hill/Malcolm X Park

16th and Euclid St, NW